

Syndication of new facility

Dublin, 18 January 2024

eir announces the successful syndication of a new €200 million term loan facility

eir announced today the successful syndication of a new €200 million term loan facility availed by eircom Finco S.à r.l. ("Borrower") as an incremental facility under its existing senior facilities agreement. The new facility will be priced at par, and have substantially the same terms as, and will be fungible with, the Borrower's existing term loan facility (including with respect to the applicable margin). The proceeds from the drawing under the new facility is intended to be used to partially refinance the existing 1.75% Senior Secured Notes due November 1, 2024, at or prior to maturity.
