

eir Cooling Off Period

eir operates a returns policy that is consistent with the European Union (Consumer Information, Cancellation and Other Rights) Regulations 2013 (the “Consumer Information Regulations”)

Please note the following limitations to your right to cancel:

1. In-Store Purchases: the right to cancel within the cooling off period does not apply to goods and services purchased in an eir store.
2. Digital Content: where you purchase digital content the cooling off period expires immediately once you begin to download or stream the digital content.
3. Supply of Services: where you have purchased a service, you hereby acknowledge that when you begin using the service before the end of the cooling off period you will be liable for all charges incurred up to the date of cancellation.
4. Diminished Value of the Goods: where you have used the products or services supplied to you before the end of the cooling off period you will be liable for any diminished value of the products or services. This reduction in value will be assessed by reference to the full market value of the goods.

For mobile phones that are damaged beyond repair or for failure to return the phone: the relevant charge is 100% of the pre-pay value of the phone:

https://www.eir.ie/group/pricing/eir_mobile/

Where the phone is visibly damaged but functioning, e.g. cracked or broken screen: the relevant charge is 30% of the pre-pay value of the phone:

https://www.eir.ie/group/pricing/eir_mobile/

Subject to the above limitations, if you change your mind, you can cancel your purchase within 14 days of the receipt of your goods or, in the case of services, within 14 days from the date your service was installed (the cooling off period).

Where a number of different services have been ordered by you, e.g. as part of a bundle, or where broadband speeds are being provided in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2015/2120 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 November 2015, your cooling off period expires 14 days from the date of the provision of the last element.

To exercise the right to cancel your purchase and get a refund, you must inform us of your decision to cancel within the cooling off period by phone on 1901 (eir fixed customers) and 1905 (eir mobile customers) or by postal address below.
